

Head Teacher Awards for Friday 13th February 2026

3JW – Vedi for AMBITION - She is showing great ambition in her writing and consistently puts effort into making her stories engaging. Vedi is following the story sequence well, and is trying to include descriptive language, which is adding detail and creativity to her work. Keep it up!

3JW – Sheza for KINDNESS - She consistently shows kindness and respect toward me, other adults, and her classmates. She is always willing to help others and offers support whenever it is needed, making her a valuable asset to the class community and school.

3KY – Kaitlyn for AMBITION - Kaitlyn is doing brilliantly with her times tables. She is ambitious and always sets herself clear targets, determined to become our TT Rockstar of the Week. Through her hard work, focus, and regular practice, she has achieved this special title numerous times this term! Kaitlyn's dedication and positive attitude towards improving her maths skills are wonderful to see, and I am very proud of her! Well done Kaitlyn!

3KY – Cristella for AMBITION - Cristella listens brilliantly to every instruction and thoughtfully includes everything she is asked to in her writing, always trying her hardest to make her work the best it can possibly be. Cristella challenges herself to use a wide range of ambitious vocabulary, choosing exciting and powerful words that make her writing sparkle. Her writing is imaginative, detailed, and full of interesting ideas that capture her readers' attention from beginning to end. Great work Cristella!

4VdB – Norah for KINDNESS – Norah is an incredibly kind, thoughtful and helpful member of 4VdB. She is always respectful towards her peers, showing care and consideration towards her friends.

4VdB – Shaan for AMBITION – Shaan always puts 100% effort into his learning. He strives hard to achieve success, showing ambition within his work tasks and presenting his work to an impeccable standard.

4JD –Khadijah for RESPONSIBILITY - Khadijah truly flourishes when given responsibility, consistently proving herself to be a trustworthy, diligent, and incredibly helpful member of our class. Her amazing support is always delivered with the most beautiful smile, and I am grateful for the positivity she brings to everything she does.

4JD – Milan for AMBITION - Milan has had an exceptional Year 4, refusing to settle for "average" and showing incredible ambition across every single subject. He is a proactive learner who approaches every task with a level of drive that makes this a truly magnificent year.

5VT – Sulayman for RESPONSIBILITY – Sulayman has been working so incredibly hard and has begun to take responsibility not only for his learning, but also for working with others. I am so very proud of him.

5VT – Kajus for AMBITION – Kajus has a good level of ambition and wants to do well in life. He often shares things he has learnt at home and is able to develop others' ideas.

5LL – Zara for AMBITION - For contributing in lessons, confidently putting her hand up to answer questions, and working increasingly independently. Her determination and positive mindset are a real credit to her.

5LL – Elissia for KINDNESS - Elissia showed great thoughtfulness by supporting a friend during Drama, helping her to be ready and confident so she did not miss her cue to perform. This was a wonderful example of teamwork and consideration for others.

6HM / 6JM - Lian for RESPONSIBILITY - For outstanding responsibility in learning. Lian showed real independence and curiosity by finding an alternative method for calculating percentages of amounts, beyond the one he was taught. Impressively, he was able to explain and teach this method clearly, demonstrating deep understanding, confidence, and a positive attitude to learning. A fantastic example of taking ownership of learning and striving to go further.

6HM / 6JM - Amelie for PERSEVERANCE - This award is presented to Amelie for her excellent perseverance in our maths booster group. She has shown great determination and focus, even when work is challenging, and continues to push herself to improve. Amelie was able to clearly explain different mathematical methods to the rest of the group, supporting others and demonstrating growing confidence and understanding. A wonderful example of resilience and teamwork in learning.

6SM – Ra'Mel for PERSEVERANCE – Ra'Mel has been working hard to push himself more in his work and it shows, he has done some nice independent writing in English and has worked well in maths too.

6SM – Ramadhan for AMBITION – Ramadhan has taken on board advice given to him on how to improve his writing. As a result of this, his writing has improved greatly. Well done.
