

Head Teacher Awards for Friday 13th March 2026

3JW – Anya Vaid for PERSEVERANCE - She consistently demonstrates perseverance in all areas of her learning. Even when faced with challenges, she remains determined and committed to improving her understanding. She always approaches new tasks with enthusiasm and records her work beautifully.

3JW – Swamini Patel for RESPONSIBILITY - Swamini consistently demonstrates maturity beyond her years. She has a truly kind and caring heart that exudes genuine warmth and compassion. Her responsible disposition and thoughtful decision-making make her a wonderful role model for her peers. An endearing young lady!

3KY – Harry Nicoll for PERSEVERANCE - Since the beginning of the school year, Harry has shown wonderful perseverance with his handwriting. He has worked incredibly hard to improve his presentation in every lesson. Even when he finds it tricky and his letters don't always come out the way he wants, Harry hasn't given up. He has kept practising and listens carefully to feedback given to him. His determination and positive attitude have made a real difference, and he should feel very proud of how much he has achieved. Well done Harry!

3KY – Zak Chowdhury for RESPONSIBILITY - Zak demonstrates a wonderful sense of responsibility in class. He listens carefully to instructions and is always ready to help wherever he is needed. Zak consistently completes his work to the best of his ability and takes pride in doing what is asked of him. Whether he is handing out stickers, sharing hand gel, tidying resources away, or preparing himself to learn, Zak shows maturity and kindness every day. He is a fantastic role model and should be very proud of his achievement. Well done Zak!

4VdB – Maya Ahmed for AMBITION – I have been really impressed with the work Maya has produced this week in English linked to Shackleton's expedition. She has used fantastic reasoning to explain some of her choices relating to the qualities and skills that Shackleton's crew would have needed to have.

4VdB - Harvey Jennings for RESPONSIBILITY – Harvey is a conscientious worker in all his lessons. He always puts thought and care into his work tasks, producing work to a high standard and taking full responsibility for his learning.

4JD – Melody Cheetham for RESPONSIBILITY - Melody has shown a pleasing growth in her classroom confidence, frequently enriching our discussions with her unique and insightful opinions. This self-assurance shines through in her work, resulting in both mature, expressive writing and a confident approach to mathematics.

4JD – Erica White for PERSEVERANCE – Erica has settled into Park amazingly well, quickly forming great friendships and showing a wonderful focus in the classroom. Her impressive tenacity and ability to rapidly take on new learning ensures she consistently produces work of a lovely standard. A great start Erica.

5VT – Tia Champaneriya for KINDNESS - Tia shows amazing kindness to everyone around her. She was also so kind in accepting the task of creating one of the main characters for our art display. It was a big job, and she created the most amazing stencil of Bottom.

5VT – Bani Pal for KINDNESS - Bani is exceptionally kind to those she cares about. She was also kind when she accepted the role of creating the other main character for our art display. Such a beautiful job was done when creating a stencil to show Titania.

5LL – Areebah Chowdhury for AMBITION - Areebah for creating a beautifully unique design inspired by A Midsummer Night's Dream. Your imagination and creativity really enhanced the look of our final piece — well done!

5LL – Om Shastri for KINDNESS – for wholeheartedly mucking in with our class art project and supporting others along the way. Your willingness to help and positive team spirit showed true kindness.

6HM / 6JM - Barney Marshall for PERSEVERANCE - This award goes to Barney for his excellent participation in reading sessions and his consistently more positive attitude. Barney shows great perseverance and nearly always gives his best effort. Well done, Barney—keep up the fantastic work!

6HM / 6JM - Oliviyah Biggs for AMBITION - This award goes to Oliviyah for showing wonderful ambition. She created an amazing World Book Day costume in her own time and consistently tries her very best in every lesson. Her effort and enthusiasm are fantastic to see. Well done!

6SM – Harper-Mai for RESPONSIBILITY – Harper is trying so hard in lessons and in booster groups to do the best she can and is trying hard to focus on demonstrating what she knows. Keep it up!

6SM – Scarlett Sheppy for KINDNESS – Scarlett is a fantastic friend to her peers, she quietly demonstrates kindness, loyalty and understanding to her friends – this is a fantastic characteristic to have.
