

Head Teacher Awards for Friday 27th March 2026

3JW – Jasmine for KINDNESS – Jasmine is a thoughtful and caring member of the class who consistently shows genuine concern for others. She demonstrates kindness towards her peers and treats adults within the school with respect and consideration. Jasmine’s supportive nature helps to create a positive classroom environment, and she is often quick to notice when someone may need encouragement or help.

3JW – Mia for AMBITION – Mia consistently strives to do her very best across all areas of the curriculum. She approaches her learning with determination and a genuine desire to succeed, carefully focusing on the tasks and requirements set for her. Her positive attitude and commitment to doing well enable her to make strong progress and produce work she can be proud of.

3KY – Jibran for RESPONSIBILITY - Jibran works hard in every lesson, always trying his best and showing determination and focus in all that he does. He takes pride in using the new skills he has learned and is a positive example to others. He is also showing great personal responsibility and commitment to his faith during Ramadan which is commendable. Well done Jibran!

3JW – Ali for AMBITION - Ali approaches his work with a positive attitude and is consistently demonstrating a strong determination to improve. His willingness to challenge himself and strive forward in his learning is particularly commendable, especially in English. He is becoming ambitious with his ideas, language and in refining his writing. Keep it up! (from last week but off due to EID)

3KY – Luis for AMBITION - Luis is contributing more in lessons, and his confidence continues to grow each day. Luis is determined to do well and strives to be the best he can be across all areas of the curriculum. Great work.

3KY – Raphael for RESPONSIBILITY - Raphael is always ready to learn, contributes thoughtfully in lessons, and consistently tries his best. He shows determination in everything he does, putting 100% effort into all of his work, and is a great role model in class. Keep working hard Raphael!k Luis, keep it up! (from last week but off due to EID)

3KY – Isla for PERSEVERANCE - Isla has shown wonderful perseverance this term, and it has been a joy to see her engaging so positively with all aspects of school life. She approaches each day with determination and a willingness to try her best, even when things feel challenging. Isla has demonstrated great resilience, facing obstacles with courage and a positive attitude, and continuing to push forward as new challenges arise. Well done Isla, I am very proud of you!

4VdB – Caitlyn for PERSEVERANCE – I have seen a big improvement in Caitlyn’s writing skills recently and I have been really impressed with the effort that she has made to work on her writing.

4VdB – Naksh for PERSEVERANCE – Mrs Johnson was really proud of Naksh during this week’s swimming session. He was a little nervous as it was his first time in the deep end of the pool, however, he overcame his worries.

4VdB – Tayseer for AMBITION – Tayseer always pushes herself in P.E. lessons, enabling her to reach her full potential and beyond. In our pacesetter lessons, I have been particularly impressed with her running skills during our athletics sessions. (from last week but off due to EID)

4JD - Mia for KINDNESS - Mia has a heart of gold, consistently putting the needs of others before her own and acting as an incredibly helpful member of our class. Her selfless nature is truly wonderful, and she brightens every single day with her million-dollar smile.

4JD - Eleanor for KINDNESS - Eleanor is a joy to have in class, always starting the day with a cheerful greeting and a lovely chat about her life outside of school. She is an outstanding partner to have in lessons, where her infectious positive attitude and cheerful disposition lift everyone around her.

4JD – Aisha for AMBITION - Aisha is a fabulous listener who absorbs everything she hears and translates it into well-understood, ambitious work. By staying focused and consistently on task, she is proving that her attentive nature is a key ingredient for her ongoing success. (from last week but off due to EID)

5VT – Aldiniah for AMBITION – Aldiniah has demonstrated so much ambition over the year so far. He works incredibly hard in all areas and has a thirst for knowledge. He does his very best to do well and succeeds because of it. I am so proud of him.

5VT – Nancy for RESPONSIBILITY – Nancy takes responsibility for making sure that all jobs are done. She helps others when they need it, fill in when people are absent and generally keeps our classroom organised and running efficiently. Thank you, Nancy.

5LL – Harley for AMBITION - Harley has worked incredibly hard on her performance of a Midsummer Night's Dream and has shown brilliant ambition to elevate her acting to a higher level.

6HM / 6JM - Amersa for PERSEVERANCE - This award is presented to a student who shows exceptional determination and dedication to her learning. She works incredibly hard, especially in maths, where she embraces challenge and enjoys tackling difficult problems. Her perseverance is clear in her willingness to keep going, even staying after lessons to complete and fully understand her work.

6HM / 6JM - Amelia for PERSEVERANCE - This award goes to a student who has made brilliant progress in maths through her hard work in booster sessions. Her effort is really paying off, and it's clear in the speed and confidence with which she now tackles problems and calculations. She should be very proud of how far she has come.

6SM – Emily for PERSEVERANCE – Emily constantly pushes herself to do her best and never settles for less. This perseverance and attitude will serve her very well.

6SM - 6SM – Dua for PERSEVERANCE – Dua tries hard in every single lesson, she is constantly pushing to do her best and to do better, she questions everything to deepen her understanding, this is such a strength of Dua's character. (from last week but off due to EID)

6SM – Eleanor for KINDNESS – Eleanor is a great friend to others, she has a kind and caring nature and this shows consistently within school, both in the classroom and outside.
