

Head Teacher Awards for Friday 20th March 2026

3JW – Calin for RESPONSIBILITY – Calin has begun to take a very responsible and mature attitude towards both written and verbal feedback. He listens carefully to advice and is making a clear effort to apply it in his work especially when given challenging tasks, as he now approaches them with determination and a positive mindset.

3KY – Raphael for RESPONSIBILITY - Raphael is always ready to learn, contributes thoughtfully in lessons, and consistently tries his best. He shows determination in everything he does, putting 100% effort into all of his work, and is a great role model in class. Keep working hard Raphael!

3KY – Lilly-May for KINDNESS - Lilly is always ready to support her friends and assist her teacher, showing care, responsibility, and a positive attitude every day. Her thoughtful actions make a difference to everyone around her, and she is a wonderful example to others. Well done Lilly, I am very proud of you!

4VdB – Harshika for PERSEVERANCE – I have been really impressed with Harshika’s maths work this week on multiplication methods. On the first lesson we did on the formal column method, she got a little muddled, but on the second lesson, she persevered and cracked the strategy with much more success.

4JD – Bobby for PERSEVERANCE - Bobby continues to go from strength to strength, showing a keen enthusiasm for reading aloud that has led to amazing progress in his pacing, pronunciation, and confidence. He demonstrated this expertise by beautifully performing a poem inspired by our study of Shackleton.

5VT – KJ for RESPONSIBILITY - KJ has demonstrated the responsibility he has taken for his role in A Midsummer Night’s Dream. He is commanding and clear in his performance, plus a little bit scary. 😊

5VT – Lillo for AMBITION – Lillo’s ambition has shone through during rehearsals for A Midsummer Night’s Dream, with him becoming more and more comfortable in his quite unique role. The humour he brings to it is perfect.

5LL – Elizabete for AMBITION - Eli always pushes herself in every lesson to make her work the best it can be. This week, she wrote an impressive formal letter using excellent vocabulary and persuasive language.

5LL – Ethan for KINDNESS - Ethan is one of the most considerate children I have ever taught. He has several classroom jobs and is always the first to volunteer to offer help. Thank you for always thinking of others, Ethan.

6HM / 6JM - Jayda for PERSEVERANCE - Jayda has shown fantastic perseverance in her maths. She never gives up when a problem is challenging and is often keen to stay behind after lessons to keep working until she solves it. Her determination and positive attitude towards learning are a great example to others. Well done, Jayda!

6HM / 6JM - Reerden for PERSEVERANCE - Reerden shows a quiet perseverance in all of his lessons. He approaches his learning with focus and determination, always trying his best and never giving up when work becomes challenging. His calm effort and consistent attitude to learning set a great example for those around him. Well done, Reerden!

6SM – Archie Rowell for KINDNESS – Archie is a good friend to everyone, he is thoughtful, supportive, kind and fun to be around which is why he is popular amongst his peers. Keep being you.
