

3JW – Vedi for RESPONSIBILITY - Vedi is a role model in both behaviour and academic attitude. Her quiet leadership, kindness, and work ethic are greatly appreciated by both her peers and adults in year 3. She embodies the values of integrity, compassion, and responsibility, and always makes a positive impact on everyone around her. An awesome young lady!

3JW – Ben for PERSEVERANCE - This young man is demonstrating admirable perseverance in English, especially in his writing. He approaches each task with a positive attitude and a genuine desire to improve. Even when faced with challenges, he remains focused and puts in consistent effort to develop his skills. I am very proud of his determined growth mindset!

3JW - Anya for KINDNESS – Anya has she has a heart that naturally reaches out to others. Her kindness isn't just in words—it's in everything she does as her and also her family gave so selflessly to our harvest festival donations.

3KY – Charlotte for PERSEVERANCE - Charlotte always tries her very best in every lesson and never gives up, even when things are challenging. When she finds something tricky, she works hard to understand it and keeps going until she succeeds. She takes great pride in her learning, carefully editing and improving her work and to overcome any mistakes she may have made. Her determination and positive attitude are an inspiration to everyone around her. Well done Charlotte!

3KY – Zak for KINDNESS - Zak is always polite and friendly to everyone around him, making his friends feel happy. He often offers to help with jobs and never hesitates to lend a hand when someone needs it. His warm smile brightens every room, and he shows kindness in everything he does. I am very proud of you Zak, well done!

4VdB – Norah for RESPONSIBILITY – I have been so impressed with how well Norah has settled into Year 4. She always works hard in her lessons, with beautifully presented work, and she is also supportive towards the other children who are working around her. A superb role model within the class.

4VdB – Surraya for PERSEVERANCE – Surraya always tries hard and perseveres in her lessons. In particular in maths, she has worked hard to use and show the strategies that have been demonstrated within our work on perimeter to ensure that she shows her working out and methods clearly.

4JD – Aisha for PERSEVERANCE - Aisha's a super dedicated student who always gives 100%. When things get tough, she steps up her focus and keeps pushing to be her best. What an amazing start to Year 4!

4JD – Khalell for KINDNESS - It's a joy working with Khalell every day. He's got an amazing smile and a fun, can-do attitude that lifts everyone's spirits. His positivity brightens the whole class—including mine! Big thanks, Khalell.

5VT – Yug for AMBITION- Yug demonstrates the most amazing ambition throughout all work. Making links with prior learning and posing fascinating questions. Well done.

5VT –Jessica for KINDNESS - Jessica is possibly one of the kindest people. She quietly gets on with everyone and is always willing to help when solving problems.

5LL – Maryam for PERSEVERANCE - For showing great bravery and perseverance in her swimming lessons, trying her very best each week, impressing her teachers with her positive attitude and determination.

5LL – Dexter for AMBITION – For writing an impressive story inspired by Street Child, featuring excellent description and vivid detail that brought Victorian London to life — a true joy to read.

6HM / 6JM -. Amersai for AMBITION – I have been very impressed with Amersai's work on depth challenges in maths this week. Not only does she understand how to calculate the answers needed, but she can carefully and clearly explain what she does and why it works. Keep up the good work Amersai.

6HM / 6JM - Oliviyah for PERSEVERANCE – Watching Oliviyah work in gymnastics this week was an absolute pleasure. She has worked hard to improve her skills over the past few weeks and this week she was able to put all of those skills together in a carefully choreographed and well-practised routine. Her dedication has inspired us all.

6SM – Michael for AMBITION - Michael is working really hard in all his lessons and demonstrating an ambitious attitude towards his learning, I was also impressed with the effort he put in to his homework

6SM – Harper-Mai for PERSEVERANCE - I have never seen someone show as much intent as Harper to improve her handwriting, even asking to take things home to practice more, it has been improving each and every week but she is showing such consistent determination with it I'm very proud of her.
