

Head Teacher Awards for Friday 5th December 2025

3JW – Nidish for PERSEVERANCE - Nidish is hardworking and always strives to do his best during lessons. His superb attitude makes him a positive role model in class, consistently showing dedication and persistence in all that he does.

3JW – Alessia-Grace for KINDNESS – Alessia-Grace consistently demonstrates kindness and compassion toward her peers, always checking that others are comfortable and supported. Her caring nature and willingness to help has certainly shone with the support that she has given another classmate, regarding his impairment. Alessia is a true asset to my class.

3KY – George for PERSEVERANCE - In DT, where we have been learning to sew, George has shown brilliant determination. Even when the sewing became tricky, he didn't give up. He asked for help when he needed it, kept trying, and improved. I am so proud of all of his hard work and brilliant attitude! Well done George!

3KY – Lila for KINDNESS - Lila is always thinking of others in the class and goes out of her way to make their day a little easier. Whether she's tidying away someone's books, offering help during lessons, or playing with classmates to make sure no one feels left out, Lila's caring nature shines through. We are all so grateful for her thoughtful, generous heart. Thank you for being so kind Lila and well done!

4VdB – Tayseer for PERSEVERANCE – Tayseer has a wonderful attitude towards her learning. She finds work a little tricky, but she will always try her best, working hard in all her lessons and with a beaming smile!

4VdB – Naksh for KINDNESS – Naksh always shows kindness and support to his peers in lessons. He cooperates well with the other children on his table group and he is an incredibly helpful member of the class.

4JD – Mehreen for RESPONSIBILITY - Mehreen has impressed this term by taking ownership of tasks and demonstrating great maturity in managing her time and work. This reliable nature makes her an excellent role model, proving she can handle responsibilities with impressive diligence.

4JD - Pranshul for AMBITION - Pranshul deserves this award because he never settles for 'good enough,' always pushing himself to be better! I was pleased to see his ambitious spirit shine through as he worked at home on his handwriting and arithmetic, leading to fantastic improvements in his work.

5VT – Bani for PERSEVERANCE – Bani for the perseverance she demonstrates in every lesson to achieve the best she possibly can.

5VT – Muaaz for RESPONSIBILITY - Muaaz for the responsibility he demonstrates in his attitude to learning. He always works incredibly hard and strives to meet the high expectations set.

5LL – Dexter for AMBITION – For showing remarkable ambition by consistently offering imaginative, insightful answers in class and always thinking outside the box.

5LL – Jake for RESPONSIBILITY - For showing outstanding responsibility by always being ready to learn and staying focused and hard-working in every single lesson.

6HM / 6JM - Ariel for AMBITION – We were very proud of Ariel's ambitious descriptive writing this week. Not only did she apply our latest grammar skill to her writing, she thought carefully about her choice of vocabulary so that it would have the greatest impact on her reader. Well done Ariel.

6HM / 6JM - Thomas for RESPONSIBILITY - Thomas has shown great responsibility in his work this week. Having listened carefully to our teaching, he has tried hard to apply newly learnt grammar skills to his writing with great success. He has also tried hard to use his best presentation which has been noticed by year 6 staff. Keep up the good work Tom.

6SM – Oliwia for PERSEVERANCE - Oliwia is working hard at all she is given in groups in the mornings. She will always ask if she is unsure and is keen to do her best. This positive approach ensures she reaches the target and every day walks out of the door feeling she has achieved. Well done Oliwiah.

6SM – Emily for AMBITION - Emily has had a fantastic start to the year! She is a conscientious student who always puts her best into everything she does. She strives to use different and unique vocabulary in her English and very much inspires the group with her ideas and writing. I have loved reading Emily's writing and find her eagerness to achieve at the highest level possible very impressive.
