

3JW – Theo for AMBITION - Theo has demonstrated remarkable ambition across all areas of his learning this term. He approaches his work with enthusiasm, focus, and a desire to improve. Furthermore, he has shown exceptional dedication to the school play. Where he has taken on his role with confidence and commitment, learning his lines diligently and participating fully in rehearsals.

3JW – Yash for PERSEVERANCE - It has been lovely to see how much more attentive he has become. He listens thoughtfully and shows real determination to do his best. His perseverance is paying off, and his confidence is growing as a result. Keep it up Yash!

3KY – Romy for PERSEVERANCE - During our sewing lessons, Romy kept going even when things were challenging and never gave up. She followed her plan thoughtfully, stayed focused, and created something she should be truly proud of. Well done, Romy!

3KY – Freddie for RESPONSIBILITY - Freddie has worked brilliantly to learn his lines for the Christmas production, taking his role seriously and giving it his very best. He has used fantastic expression and intonation when delivering his lines, showing real dedication and responsibility throughout. Well done, Freddie!

4VdB – Junaid for PERSEVERANCE – Junaid always tries hard in his lessons, even when he finds a task a little tricky. Recently, I have been really impressed with the increased effort Junaid has put into his handwriting and presentation, which has resulted in an improvement in the neatness of his work.

4VdB – Ollie for AMBITION – Ollie has really challenged himself in our recent gymnastics sessions. He has really tried hard to participate in the activities, pushing himself even when the tasks have been a little challenging and have taken him out of his comfort zone.

4JD – Jayant for AMBITION - Jayant has impressed me in Maths this term, especially with his improved focus when solving tough problems. Because of this, he approaches challenges with a sharp mind and is proving he's got what it takes to be an excellent problem solver.

4JD - Nana for PERSEVERANCE - Nana is a hard worker; she shows fantastic perseverance by listening carefully and absorbing every detail in the lessons. This dedication means she remembers huge amounts of information, which is clearly paying off with excellent results in her assessments.

5VT – Aldiniah for KINDNESS – Aldiniah demonstrates the most amazing kindness to others when helping with work. He is able to work with anyone and is always positive and friendly. He also takes care of our classroom for me, which I am very grateful for.

5VT – Hanaa for PERSEVERANCE – Hanaa has worked incredibly hard so far this year. She has shown her perseverance when working through areas that she has initially found tricky. I am very proud of the fact that she never gives up and will ask for help when necessary.

5LL – Alina for RESPONSIBILITY - Alina needs to be recognised for her reliability, hard work, and superb role-model qualities. She approaches every task with maturity and determination, making our classroom a better place.

5LL – Phoebe for PERSEVERANCE - For showing remarkable perseverance in her maths learning. She bravely asks for help when things feel tricky, listens carefully to advice, and works incredibly hard to improve every day.

6HM / 6JM - Jack for AMBITION - Jack consistently works to the best of his ability, his vocabulary in his writing is outstanding and he regularly teaches us new words or about new facts regarding animals. His information text is full of detailed and technical facts about the lizard!

6HM / 6JM – Winter for PERSEVERANCE - Winter is a hard-working member of our class. She is quietly determined to do her best and never fails to put in a lot of effort, even if she doesn't find something easy.

6SM – Lucian for PERSEVERANCE - Lucian is working so hard in class at the minute, he was a whizz in our maths lesson on nets of 3D shapes and then wrote really well in our writing lesson. Mrs Howes has also been really impressed with his attitude and determination in her small group. Keep it up Lucian.

6SM – Dua for AMBITION - Dua is one of those people who constantly strives to be better and to understand more, she asks questions like there's no tomorrow and uses the answers to challenge herself and others in her learning, her approach to every piece of work is spot on and she will go far with this ambitious attitude to life.
