

3JW – Mia for KINDNESS - She is a kind, cheerful, and caring student who consistently demonstrates a positive attitude towards her learning. She immerses herself fully in all aspects of classroom activities and approaches every task with enthusiasm and curiosity with a constant smile that always creates a positive atmosphere in my classroom.

3JW – Iyaaz for AMBITION - Iyaaz is an ambitious, determined boy who consistently strives to achieve his very best. He approaches all aspects of his learning with a positive attitude, perseverance, and a strong work ethic whilst also taking pride in producing his work to a high standard. Keep it up!

3KY – Lilly-May for RESPONSIBILITY - Lilly has had a brilliant first year at Park. She consistently demonstrates a positive attitude towards her learning, listening carefully in class and always giving her best effort in everything she does. Lilly approaches new challenges with enthusiasm and determination, showing a genuine desire to succeed. Her responsible attitude towards her work and behaviour makes her an excellent role model for others, and this has helped her make good progress throughout the year. Well done Lilly!

3KY – Grace for AMBITION - As our class Reading Ambassador, she demonstrates an outstanding love and passion for books, which inspires those around her. Grace is a fabulous reader who is always looking for ways to challenge herself and improve further. Her determination to keep learning and developing her skills is evident in everything she does. Thanks to her ambitious attitude and commitment to excellence, she is making great progress and continues to achieve wonderful success. Great work Grace!

4VdB – Surraya for AMBITION – Surraya created a fantastic piece of descriptive writing linked to her work on 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe'. It was lovely to see her challenging herself in her writing skills by choosing some adventurous vocabulary and in her choices of noun phrases, fronted adverbials and adverbs. (from last week but Mum unable to make it so moved to today)

4VdB – Tiana for PERSEVERANCE – Mrs Johnson and I have been really impressed with Tiana's perseverance and attitude in recent maths lessons. She has taken on board the advice given to her and has used the maths resources to help her in lessons, often without even being asked to do so.

4VdB - Adrian for AMBITION – Adrian has shown great ambition in a number of different lessons. I was particularly impressed with his choice to spend longer on his poster showing the Humanist creation beliefs and he has spent several of his playtimes working on developing and improving his work.

4JD – Dave for KINDNESS - Dave is a fun and vibrant member of our group who possesses a true heart of gold. He is kind and helpful to those around him, and his sense of humour and insightful observations always bring a smile to my face.

4JD – Jaxon for RESPONSIBILITY-Jaxon has also proven throughout the year what a fantastic leader he can be. He steps up to any challenge, and I can trust him with any task or support required. He is a truly dependable member of our class.

5VT – Harper for KINDESS – Harper being the kindest person I have ever met, who is always concerned about others and would do anything to help. Thank you Harper.

5VT – Bani for AMBITION - Bani has demonstrated amazing ambition over the year and continues to push forward. She will continue to do well due to such an amazing work ethic. Well done Bani.

5LL - Ismaeel for RESPONSIBILITY - For showing excellent responsibility throughout the year. You have been a reliable, positive member of the class and a great role model to others. You've had a marvellous year and should be very proud of all you've achieved. Well done!

5LL – Rebecca for KINDNESS - For always showing kindness and thinking of others. In our PE netball session, you encouraged your teammates and helped everyone feel supported and included. Your caring attitude makes a real difference. Well done!

6HM / 6JM - Hayden for PERSEVERANCE - for your fantastic perseverance in improving your spellings. You have shown determination, resilience and a positive attitude by practising regularly and never giving up, even when words have been challenging. Your hard work is paying off, and you should be very proud of the progress you have made.

6HM / 6JM - Oliviyah for RESPONSIBILITY - for the wonderful responsibility you show in everything you do. Your enthusiasm, positivity and commitment shine through every day, and you always give your very best effort. This week, you have been especially impressive in the way you have embraced your role in the production and contributed so positively to the girls' football team.

6SM – Jayden for KINDNESS – Jayden is a loyal and trustworthy friend, he is compassionate towards others and just quietly goes about his day being a good friend, his first concern is always a friend, never himself and that is why he is valued so much by his peers.

6SM – Eleanor for RESPONSIBILITY – Eleanor is a responsible member of the class who can be trusted to meet expectations consistently, and act as a positive role model for her peers even though we have a bit less of a routine at the minute due to show practices, she is someone I can always rely on, thank you.
