

3JW – Noor for PERSEVERANCE - Her perseverance is a real strength in mathematics. She openly shares any concerns or uncertainties and works hard to articulate her thinking, allowing her understanding and problem-solving strategies to be clearly seen and heard. Keep up this awesome trait.

3JW – Swamini - She demonstrates outstanding kindness in her daily interactions and always looks out for others. Her empathy and understanding embody the values of our school and make her a wonderful role model.

3KY – Amaru for RESPONSIBILITY - Since starting at Park, Amaru has settled well into the school routines and lessons. He comes into class ready to learn, get his equipment out that he will need for the day and is beginning to take a more active role in lessons. Amaru's positive attitude and growing confidence have really helped him to become a responsible learner in 3KY. Well done Amaru!

3KY – Hayat for PERSEVERANCE - Hayat has been working hard on our depth questions in maths, focusing on how to explain her thinking clearly and concisely. Despite finding some of the tasks difficult, Hayat has listened carefully to feedback, taken on board advice, and never given up when faced with a challenge. This week, her determination has really paid off, and she has produced some fantastic answers to complex reasoning problems. Well done Hayat, I'm very proud of you!

4VdB – Alex for PERSEVERANCE – Alex has come back from the half term break with a really great attitude. He is trying hard in his lessons and making some lovely contributions during discussions and within his work tasks.

4VdB - Olivia for KINDNESS – Olivia is incredibly supportive and kind towards her peers in class. She is always willing to offer help and advice if one of her classmates is unsure of what to do and she cooperates well when working in a pair or small group.

4JD – Ruth for PERSEVERANCE- Ruth has taken all of our Year 4 feedback and support on board, and it is really benefiting her work. She recently wrote a wonderful description, showcasing her excellent skills and brilliant use of prepositions. Well done, Ruth!

4JD – Nana for RESPONSIBILITY - Nana has shown amazing maturity this year and is completely ready to hit Year 5 running. She has uplifted her handwriting and continues to impress everyone with her insightful and curious questions. Keep up the fantastic work, Nana.

5VT – Sienna for RESPONSIBILITY - Sienna has shown how truly responsible she can be by consistently working hard in lessons and really trying to make progress for herself. I am immensely proud of her.

5VT – Aisha for KINDNESS - Aisha shows kindness to everyone around her and does her best to make sure everyone is ok. She is always helping and checking on her friends.

5LL – Matty for PERSEVERANCE - For demonstrating excellent perseverance in Maths by working hard, staying focused, and challenging yourself to reach the depth challenges. Well done!

5LL - Dexter for RESPONSIBILITY - For demonstrating responsibility in PE by listening attentively to instructions and confidently explaining and demonstrating the task to the class. Your excellent focus and leadership helped others understand what to do. Well done!

6HM / 6JM - Blake for AMBITION - for his fantastic ambition during our performance poetry lesson. Blake showed great confidence and determination as he performed, pushing himself out of his comfort zone and giving his very best throughout. His enthusiasm, expression and willingness to challenge himself were wonderful to see. Well done, Blake — you should be very proud of yourself!

6HM / 6JM - Daniel for AMBITION - for his ambition in learning a poem off by heart. His hard work and positive attitude were fantastic to see, and he should be very proud of what he has achieved. Well done, Daniel!

6SM – Ramadhan for RESPONSIBILITY – Ramadhan has been given a very important job for our year 6 show and it is a responsibility he is taking very seriously and giving up a lot of his own time to ensure he is up to speed with what he needs to be, we are all extremely grateful.

6SM – Harper for KINDNESS – Harper is a kind and genuine person, he is thoughtful towards others (both adults and peers) and shows a caring attitude to all he does, well done Harper, keep being you.
