Headteacher Awards – Friday 6th November 2026

3JW – Miley for RESILENCE - She has shown wonderful resilience and determination in all her work. She consistently tries her very best and puts great effort into presenting her work as clearly and beautifully as possible. It is lovely to see her perseverance, positive attitude, and willingness to keep trying, even when things feel challenging. Keep it up!

3JW – Daniella for PROUD - I am so proud of the consistent effort and dedication she shows across all subjects. She always strives to do her very best, approaching her learning with a positive attitude and a real determination to succeed. Furthermore, she is also showing a wonderful flair for her English compositions, where her creativity and growing confidence are really beginning to shine.

3KY – Ariah for KNOWLEDGEABLE - Ariah is always a hardworking and enthusiastic learner who takes on board what is taught and uses it to develop her understanding. Recently, she has particularly impressed me in English, where she is applying her learning brilliantly in her writing. She is showing a fantastic understanding of the skills we have been learning, and I am so proud of the progress she is making.

3KY – Yahya for PROUD - I am so proud of the attitude Yahya brings to school every day! He listens brilliantly, contributes lots of fantastic ideas in lessons and is always ready to learn. He consistently tries his best and shows a real determination to be the best that he can be. Keep up the fantastic work Yahya!

4VdB – Emerald for PROUD - Emerald is a super role model to her peers with regards to her handwriting and presentation. She always takes care to present her work neatly and takes pride in the way her work is presented in every lesson. (from 16th October)

4VdB -Xavier for KNOWLEDGEABLE – I have been really impressed with Xavier's work on area this week in maths. He has shown an excellent understanding of area, listening to and following the strategies that have been taught, resulting in some fabulous, accurate work.

4VdB – Noor for ACCEPTING – Noor is a model pupil in my class, who always makes excellent choices. She takes pride in her work and her presentation is impeccable. I was particularly impressed with her this week when she chose to spend some of her breaktime to finish coping up a piece of writing into her 'Wow' writing book.

4JD – Orla for KNOWLEDGEABLE – Orla has really impressed with her general knowledge right across the curriculum. Even better, when she meets something she doesn't know, she is keen to learn and use it. A superb start Orla.

4JD – Hayat for PROUD – Hayat has proven to be an incredibly trustworthy and mature member of 4JD. Her proactive and helpful nature make her a real asset to our class. You should be proud of yourself, Hayat.

5VT – Ollie for RESILIENCE – Ollie has demonstrated amazing resilience when completing his work and has really improved his ability to keep going. Well done Ollie, keep it up.

5VT - Harley for KNOWLEDGEABLE – Harley consistently demonstrates the great knowledge she has in a range of areas. She is growing in confidence and is sharing her thoughts more and more often. Way to go Harley.

5LL – Shyam for KNOWLEDGEABLE - This young man consistently demonstrates all of our school values every day. He works incredibly hard, shows a real thirst for knowledge and enthusiastically shares his understanding with others, inspiring those around him with his love of learning.

5LL – Surraya for PROUD – Surraya should feel incredibly proud of the effort and creativity she put into her fantastic factory model for our Industrial Revolution homework. She showed great dedication and took real care to bring her learning to life, producing a model that she can be truly proud of!

6HM / 6JM – Rebecca for ACCEPTING - Rebecca, I am so proud of how accepting, kind and lovely you are towards everyone around you. You treat both your peers and the adults in school with such warmth and kindness, making everyone feel welcome and valued for who they are. You are a wonderful example of how to make our school a happier place simply by being yourself. Keep being your lovely self, Rebecca!

6HM / 6JM – Aldiniah for RESILIENCE - Aldiniah, I am so proud of the resilience you have shown as you have started your first term in Year 6. You have approached new challenges with an excellent attitude and a real determination to do your best. You should be incredibly proud of the positive mindset you bring to your learning and the way you keep going, even when things feel challenging. Keep up the fantastic work, Aldiniah!

6SM – Elizabete for RESILIENCE – Eli is an absolute joy to have in class, she is hard-working, determined and not afraid to push herself out of her comfort zone. She shows tremendous resilience every lesson and is always putting her best foot forward, this work-ethic will ensure she achieves great things. Well done.

6SM – Noah for PROUD – Noah quietly gets on with tasks he has been given; he manages to avoid other distractions and ensure he is trying his best and I'm incredibly proud of him for this. He is always willing to share an answer or give something a go, keep it up Noah.
