Headteacher Awards – Friday 13th November 2026

3JW – Jahlaka for ACCEPTING - Jahlaka is keen, inquisitive and eager to learn in all her lessons. She readily accepts tasks including the challenging ones and was very eager to partake in a leading role in the year 3's Xmas production. You're a star Jahlaka!

3JW – Alfie for PROUD - I am extremely proud of Alfie's effort in all areas of his work, particularly in his changing mindset towards his learning. He is beginning to challenge himself more in lessons and is showing a willingness to step outside his comfort zone whilst also becoming more increasingly engaged in class discussions. Keep it up Alfie!

3KY – Yahya for PROUD - I am so proud of the fantastic piece of artwork Yahya created, inspired by our work on the Day of the Dead. He worked carefully and independently throughout, showing great creativity and attention to detail. He should be incredibly proud of what he has achieved, I know that I certainly am! Well done Yahya!

3KY – Sofia for ACCEPTING - Sofia is a fantastic example of what it means to be accepting. She works brilliantly with everyone and is a wonderful learning partner, always willing to support and help others when needed. She listens carefully to the ideas and opinions of those she works with and values everyone's contributions. Sofia's kind and thoughtful attitude makes her a pleasure to work with!

4VdB – Ben for ACCEPTING – I have seen some lovely moments of kindness from Ben this week towards his peers in the classroom. It was really nice to see him accepting that some of the other children in his class sometimes need a little support and offering this help.

4VdB -Sheza for RESILIENT – Sheza is always hard working in her lessons, just getting on with her tasks without making any fuss. She perseveres if the work gets challenging or if she is not sure what to do and she shows lots of resilience in her learning.

4JD – Zak for KNOWLEDGEABLE- Zak has taken his work to the next level by slowing down! Instead of rushing, he's methodical and careful with his problem-solving. During Barvember, he has used detailed bar models to solve the challenges. Fantastic effort, Zak!

4JD - Romy for RESILIENCE - Romy tackles every day with grit and determination. She goes into every activity with a big smile, and her neater, carefully presented work shows just how much focus she puts in. You should be very proud of yourself, Romy.

5VT – Logan for PROUD- We are so very proud of the way you have been answering questions in class and really pushing yourself. Keep it up Logan.

5VT - Maya for ACCEPTING - Maya is so very accepting of everything around her. She is kind to others and willing to help out where needed. She is a wonderful young lady. Thank you Maya.

5LL – Ahmed for KNOWLEDGEABLE - For consistently demonstrating excellent knowledge and understanding, and always going above and beyond in your written work. Your detailed, thoughtful responses show great depth of understanding, enthusiasm for learning and a real commitment to producing work of the highest standard.

5LL – Enisa for ACCEPTING - For consistently demonstrating our value of being accepting through your exceptional kindness and thoughtfulness towards others. You always go out of your way to make sure everyone feels welcome, included and valued. The care you show when supporting a classmate who is learning English is truly wonderful.

6HM / 6JM – Bani for ACCEPTING - Bani, I was so pleased to see you showing such kindness and acceptance towards others during maths. You were wonderfully patient and gently supported someone who finds maths a little more challenging than you do, taking the time to help them understand. You showed real empathy, encouragement and a lovely understanding that we all learn in different ways. A wonderful example of being a supportive and caring member of our class. Well done, Bani!

6HM / 6JM – Pransi for RESILIENCE - Pransi, I am so proud of the quiet determination and resilience you show every day. You always work hard, get on with your learning and give everything your best effort. I am particularly pleased to see you having the confidence to ask for support when you need it, recognising that this is an important part of becoming a successful learner. You are a lovely member of our class and a pleasure to teach. Keep believing in yourself, Pransi!

6SM – Lacey-Mae for ACCEPTING – Since returning to Park, Lacey-Mae is a constant source of positivity and happiness, she approaches everything with enthusiasm and demonstrates an accepting attitude towards anything she is asked to do and to those around her, she is a lovely addition to year 6.

6SM – Kacper for KNOWLEDGABLE – Kacper is one of those people who is fortunate enough to be good at lots of different things but in recent weeks I have seen him consistently push himself to do better in lessons, he is consistently looking for what he can improve in his work and challenges himself well in all lessons, this is reflected in his fantastic work, I have also seen in him a keenness to help others which is great to see, keep it up.
