

Wonderful water

made by willow♡

The beautiful horizon expands before your mind, So here is some relaxation that will,
flash before your eyes.

calming music with a trickling water fall nothing can go wrong, you come into the sunlight where the waters, whisper whispers most the whole world around you disappears into a doze.

You float into the unimaginable places of your dreams, take a second just a second to think what your dreams would be, then now keep on reading and you will see what I see.

You go near the waterfall and see the clear salty lake, the crystal white rocks and water full of pure honesty and love, would you feel what I feel?

But now the ride, it has to end I ^h Hope that you enjoyed, it's time to go to your reality, if you want to come again just read ~~this~~ ^{this} poem ~~poem~~ another time you are always welcome.

Follow your imagination and never let it stop ♡

(a fun journey for both kids and adults to enjoy ♡)
