SCHOOL STATEMENT – GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation)

This statement concerns how we make every effort to manage your details with total responsibility, and take great care to keep them safe and secure.

We store and may transfer your information to other authorities, so that we can operate effectively as a school and be able to positively implement our duty of care for the school community. Under data regulations, we are lawfully able to do this to carry out tasks in the public interest and as part of our legal obligation.

We are being more transparent so that you know more about the personal information we hold. We have completed an information audit (located on our website) so you can see this information. Further information is also included in our data protection policy and privacy notices.

You have rights under data protection regulations, and we would like you to know what they are:

- a right of access to a copy of the information comprised in your personal data. However, we may consider applying an exemption to some information where our duties may be potentially compromised.
- a right to object to processing that is likely to cause or is causing damage or distress;
- a right to prevent processing for direct marketing;
- a right to object to decisions being taken by automated means, unless we have an overriding legitimate reason to continue;
- a right in certain circumstances to have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed.
- a right to claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Act.

If you would like to make any requests, think your data has been misused or it is not secure, you should contact us:

Data Protection Controller, the Headteacher, who may delegate their duty to other employees.

NPAT Data Protection Officer, Angela Corbyn, dpo@npatschools.org

If you are unhappy with our response or if you need any advice you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).
