Happiness in nature

Imagine, a quiet lake. Birds chirpping in the tropical sunset. Hear the fish go swish in the open lake. The foxes go scurring tree to tree.

A path of lavender and a quiet moment sets the seen to calm. Lige's streeses are lest behind. The clouds drist the evening sky.

Mother nature's blessing of lise and the whole world to explore. Leaves drop, chances come. The Earths your canvas Now be the brush. Now go nature is calling you.

This is Happiness In Nature.
