

Thank you for writing such original stories, I really enjoyed reading them and I found it very difficult to decide on the winners as so many of them stuck out as being different and captured my interest.

The top 4 are:

1. Bani Pal

I could really imagine I was there too, well done, a very imaginative story

2. Aldiniah Frances

Another very different approach to the subject, a very well put together piece of writing

3. Om Shastri

A very well put together piece of writing which is short and simple and very easy to read which looks at the subject from a slightly different angle

4. Grace

A very simple and engaging story mapping a fox cub to adulthood. It is easy to read and is easy to imagine the reader is there too

The following pieces of writing also captured my imagination and need to be commended:

Lexi Osci-Bonsu

Jasper Chambers

Swamini

Marcie Smith

Isla-Rose

Again, thank you all so much
